DANIEL SPEHLER PRESIDENT

Welcome to the 54th annual Great Lakes Emmy Awards!

It's great to be back in the Cleveland area for our first in-person gala in Ohio since 2019, when we gathered for our 50th anniversary. You've all done some amazing work this past year, and we're proud to honor the best of the best tonight as we celebrate excellence in our industry with our colleagues and friends.

But we're also looking to the future – and doing so by awarding four scholarships to some incredibly deserving recipients who plan to chart their own course in our industry here in the years to come.

Your contributions to our chapter help fund those scholarships, and make a real difference in the lives of these future journalists.

And later this summer, we'll gather again near Indianapolis for our Gold & Silver Circle Celebration honoring several distinguished veterans from our chapter who've made a big difference throughout their celebrated careers in television.

It's all part of our mission to honor excellence in our industry – and inspire excellence in our industry – from our students embarking on the early phases of their career to our highly accomplished veterans and retirees who have lead the way within our industry for years.

Congratulations again to all our nominees!

SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS

Steven Iwanek
Bowling Green State University

My goal in life is to be a renowned sports journalist or a marketing specialist for a sports media organization and/or professional sports team. With my major being broadcast journalism, this relates right into what I do on a daily basis with my job at BGSU. From rebranding our sports organization, to leading the way in the creation/initiation of feature stories, our organization strives to build up and improve the skill sets of young journalism/PR students everyday.

My life has been re-determined ever since I was struck by a drunk driver and was in a bad accident last September '22. My best friend tragically passed away, and I suffered many injuries. However, with the hand of God on my shoulder, I have found a new passion to take advantage of every opportunity that life throws my way.

I want people to know that no matter the decision made about my resume or personality, I am grateful to every organization that helps students like me, who are self-funding, give a bit of aid during the grind and financial stress with college.

Simone Maxim
Herron Classical Schools

Next year, I will attend Chapman University to major in Writing for Film and Television. Throughout my life, my interests have constantly fluctuated. Whether trying new sports or teaching myself new hobbies, I spent much of my life bouncing back and forth to find which activities were truly "me." However, writing has always been steady and dependable in the background of my life, just like white noise.

I've been eager to educate myself about screenwriting and film/television production. I enrolled in a UCLA Extension online feature-length screenwriting course, and I've now outlined and written part of my first feature-length film, as well as scripts for short films. Last summer, I was admitted to Indiana University Bloomington's Digital Cinema Academy, a selective summer academy that only admits 20 students nationwide; while there, I collaborated on a short film by writing the script and directing parts of the film with a group of students.

Upon graduation, I want to tell stories that inspire me, specifically the stories of groups often underrepresented.

CENTRALS GREAT LAKES

SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS

Andy Newman
Ball State University

Andy Newman is a rising senior at Ball State University. He has a double major in both journalism and media with a concentration in news. He is currently a multimedia journalist intern at WPTA 21 Alive in Fort Wayne, Indiana. He is also the Sports Director for Delaware County's only live television news broadcast, NewsLink Indiana, on Ball State's campus. Andy is also a member of a documentary crew through Ball State PBS focusing on refugees in Muncie, Indiana, and Bowling Green, Kentucky.

Andy is the recipient of an Indiana Association of School Broadcasters (IASB) award for best video package 2023. He is also the recipient of the Journal Gazette Journalism 2023 student scholarship and the Morrie Mannies Sportscasting 2023 scholarship.

In his free time, Andy enjoys watching his favorite sports teams including the Colts and Notre Dame Fighting Irish Football as well as watching movies and television shows such as The Flash and Back to the Future.

Evan Schotts
Carroll High School

As a successful and effective part of my high school news program, Studio 415, I have been given a perspective on what it takes to become a broadcast journalist. I have set goals to improve my broadcasting skills and tell compelling stories.

I will be attending Ball State University as an honor student in the fall to continue my pursuit of becoming a broadcast journalist. I am confident I will have the best opportunity to learn how to create a wide range of interesting and impactful stories using video, audio, writing, interviewing, and digital media.

After graduation, I would like to work for a television news station and use my education and skills to keep the public informed of the changing events.

Overall, my biggest goal is to be a servant for my community through the work I produce and the stories I tell. I plan to build and maintain the public's trust in me.

GOLD & SILVER
CIRCLE
SOCIETY

The Silver Circle and Gold Circle honor media professionals who began their careers in television in a performing, creative, technical administrative role, or in an area related to television such as TV journalism, education, advertising, promotion, and public relations.

Beyond the number of years in the industry, induction into this elite group considers a person's significant contributions to the general community, Central Great Lakes Chapter television and The National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences, and the training of others for careers in broadcasting.

The NATAS Central Great Lakes Silver Circle was first presented in 1991 for at least 25 years of service. The Gold Circle, presented to those with at least 50 years of service, was first presented in 2005.

We thank the Silver Circle Committee for rigorously vetting the nominees and voting on a slate that was forwarded to the board for approval.

A golden Emmy statuette stands on a three-tiered, dark-colored pedestal. The statuette is highly reflective, showing highlights from the surrounding spotlights. The background is a deep blue, punctuated by several bright, multi-colored spotlights (blue, green, yellow, red, purple) that create a dramatic, stage-like atmosphere. The spotlights cast beams of light across the scene, some illuminating the statuette directly.

REGIONAL EMMY®
INFORMATION & USAGE RIGHTS
Use of Regional Emmy® Name and Statuette in Advertising and Publicity

AWARD OWNERSHIP: Regional Emmy® Awards are presented to individuals, not to their employers. It is the individual entrant's achievement that is being judged and recognized. Ownership of the Regional Emmy® statuette is retained by the individuals and The National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences, even if an employer pays entry fees.

Recipients may not sell or give the statuette to anyone. The Regional Emmy® Award Statuette is the copyrighted and registered trademarked property of NATAS! If a recipient or the recipient's heir or successor in interest proposes to sell or otherwise dispose of the Regional Emmy® statue(ette), such persons shall be obligated to return the statue(ette) to NATAS which will retain the same in storage in memory of the recipient.

COMMEMORATIVE STATUETTES: Stations, studios and production companies may order a commemorative statuette for public display at their place of business (up to a maximum of three per winning entry). The statuette is engraved the same as the actual Regional Emmy® Award, with the word "commemorative" added to the statuette. No additional or special wording is allowed.

PROMOTION: All publicity, advertising or any written reference undertaken by stations, nominees and award recipients to the Emmy® Awards, must clearly state that the awarded achievement is for a Regional Emmy® Award. The word "Regional" must appear in these instances. i.e. "Regional Emmy® Recipient for Outstanding Newscast".

The recipient of a nomination or a Regional Emmy® Award or station/company may refer in advertising and publicity to the fact that they have been honored only for one year after the recognition was bestowed. They may use a replica of the Regional Emmy® statuette in such advertising. Individuals who significantly contributed to the production or craft but were not honored with a statuette cannot specifically advertise they are an Emmy® award recipient. They can only state they worked on the recognized program.

COPYRIGHT: The statuette itself may not be reproduced or used in any other commercial manner without written permission from NATAS. A ® registration mark and the appropriate copyright notice: © NATAS/Television Academy must accompany any portrayal of the Emmy® statuette or moniker. The word "EMMY®" is also trademark and wherever possible its use should appear as follows: "EMMY®."

Correct: I received an Central Great Lakes Emmy® for Outstanding... – (category title)

Incorrect: I won an Emmy for Best... (category)
